Commissioners:

In accordance with your instructions, a compliance examination has been made of the affairs and financial condition of:

EMPLOYERS LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF WAUSAU Wausau, Wisconsin and this report is respectfully submitted.

I. INTRODUCTION

The previous examination of the company was conducted in 1993 and 1994 as of December 31, 1992. The current examination covered the intervening period ending December 31, 1996, and included a review of such 1997 and 1998 transactions as deemed necessary to complete the examination.

The examination consisted of a review of all major phases of the company's operations, and included the following areas:

History
Management and Control
Corporate Records
Conflict of Interest
Fidelity Bonds and Other Insurance
Employes' Welfare and Pension Plans
Territory and Plan of Operations
Affiliated Companies
Growth of Company
Reinsurance
Financial Statements
Accounts and Records
Data Processing

Emphasis was placed on the audit of those areas of the company's operations accorded a high priority by the examiner-in-charge when planning the examination. Special attention was given to the action taken by the company to satisfy the recommendations and comments made in the previous examination report.

The section of this report titled "Summary of Examination Results" contains comments and elaboration on those areas where adverse findings were noted or where unusual situations existed. Comment on the remaining areas of the company's operations is contained in the examination work papers.

A concurrent examination was conducted by the Market Regulation Bureau of Wisconsin's Office of the Commissioner of Insurance, and the results of that examination were expressed in a separate report. That report contains descriptions of company policies and procedures related to market conduct issues, as well as elaboration on those areas where adverse findings were noted.

The company is annually audited by an independent public accounting firm as prescribed by s. Ins 50.05, Wis. Adm. Code. An integral part of this compliance examination was the review of the work papers of the independent public accounting firm. Based on the results of the review of these work papers, alternative or additional examination steps deemed necessary for the completion of this examination were performed. The examination work papers contain documentation with respect to the alternative or additional examination steps performed during the course of the examination.

Independent Actuary's Review

An independent actuary was engaged under a contract with the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance. He reviewed the adequacy of aggregate life and accident and health reserves, dividends to policyholders, cash-flow testing, deferred and uncollected premiums for life insurance, due and uncollected premiums for health insurance, and in-force testing. The results of his work were reported to the examiner-in-charge. As deemed appropriate, reference is made in this report to the actuary's conclusion.

II. HISTORY AND PLAN OF OPERATION

Employers Life Insurance Company of Wausau (hereinafter also "ELIC"), a stock life and health company operating under ch. 611, Wis. Stat., was incorporated under the name currently used on August 23, 1965. EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company, which was then known as Employers Mutual Liability Insurance Company (hereinafter also "Employers"), provided the initial capital and expendable surplus of the company.

In 1977, Wausau Service Corporation (hereinafter also "WSC"), a subsidiary of Employers, was restructured to act as a holding company for nearly all subsidiaries of Employers. Effective January 2, 1978, all outstanding stock of Employers' subsidiaries, including that of Employers Life Insurance Company of Wausau, was transferred to WSC.

On November 23, 1985, Employers consummated an affiliation agreement with Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company (hereinafter also "NMIC") dated November 6, 1985.

NMIC's sister company, Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company (hereinafter also "NMFIC"), is not party to the affiliation agreement. Within the context of this agreement, and certain subsequent agreements, NMIC exercises control of Employers and its subsidiaries through nomination of the various boards of directors, common executive management, and control of the reinsurance pool to which all direct premiums written by Employers are ceded and from which all net premiums written are assumed. The directors of Employers continue to be elected by the policyholders of Employers, as required by s. 611.53 (2), Wis. Stat. Election and reelection of nominees associated with NMIC on the Employers board have preserved the affiliation.

On December 31, 1994, Wausau Service Corporation sold all of the issued and outstanding shares of Employers Life Insurance Company of Wausau, together with ELIC's wholly owned subsidiary, Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company, to Nationwide Life Insurance Company. The combined sales price of ELIC and Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company was $155,000,000.

On January 1, 1997, ownership of Employers Life Insurance Company of Wausau was transferred to Nationwide Corporation, a holding company, which common stock is owned by NMIC (95.2%) and NMFIC (4.8%). In this way, ELIC became a second-tier subsidiary of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company, its current ultimate parents. Additional information concerning the holding company system headed by NMIC (hereinafter also "Nationwide Insurance Enterprise"), and the company's relationships with its affiliates, is contained in the section of this report titled, "Affiliated Companies."

Changes in the company's capitalization structure since incorporation are illustrated as follows:

Year	Number of Shares Authorized	Number of Shares Outstanding	Par Value per Share	Capital Paid Up	Gross Paid-In and Contributed Surplus
1965	200,000	100,000	$10.00	$1,000,000	$ 2,000,000
1967	200,000	105,000	10.00	1,050,000	2,100,000
1968	200,000	125,000	10.00	1,250,000	2,500,000
1989	500,000	250,000	10.00	2,500,000	21,811,656
1992	500,000	250,000	10.00	2,500,000	23,913,193

The company has no employes of its own. All day-to-day operations are conducted with staff provided by Wausau Service Corporation and Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company in accordance with the business practices and internal controls of those organizations. Virtually all expenses are initially paid by EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company. Expenses other than federal income taxes are allocated in accordance with a system of approximately 1,000 allocation models, which, in turn, are developed on the basis of specific identification, utilization estimates, and time studies, in conformity with a general expense allocation agreement. The company's federal income taxes were filed on a separate, nonconsolidated basis in 1996. Intercompany balances with affiliates are created in the ordinary course of business with settlements generally made on a monthly basis. Written agreements with affiliates are further described in the section of this report titled, "Affiliated Companies".

ELIC's operations are coordinated from the home offices of EMPLOYERS

INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company in Wausau, Wisconsin. Support services are provided from a network of claim, legal, and marketing offices throughout the United States.

In the state of Wisconsin, the company is licensed to transact participating and nonparticipating life and annuity business as defined by s. Ins 6.75 (1) (a), Wis. Adm. Code. The company is licensed to conduct business in all states and the District of Columbia, except New York. There are no applications for admission pending in any jurisdiction.

There was a significant revision in the company's plan of operation effective January 1, 1996. This revision was most prominently reflected in certain new reinsurance arrangements:

- Effective January 1, 1996, the company assumes all of the group A&H insurance risks written by its affiliate, EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company. Pursuant to the reinsurance agreement, Employers is entitled to withhold funds in proportion to the outstanding policy and claim reserve levels. The reinsurance agreement provides for the payment of interest to the company on funds withheld. By this reinsurance agreement, the company replaced its subsidiary, Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company (hereinafter also "WPHIC"), as Employers' group A&H reinsurer.
- Effective January 1, 1996, the company provides to Employers certain services for uninsured accident and health plans, which were previously performed by Employers itself.
 The company essentially performs in the capacity of a subcontractor. The service fee income is reflected as service contract fees in the statement of operations, while the allocated expense is included in general insurance expenses. For some years prior to January 1, 1996, Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company acted in this subcontracting capacity.
- Effective January 1, 1996, the company entered into a modified coinsurance agreement with Nationwide Life Insurance Company, an affiliate, whereby accident and health and group life insurance written or assumed by Nationwide Life Insurance Company is ceded to the company. Under modified coinsurance agreements, the ceding company retains the reserves and related invested assets. In accordance with the agreement, quarterly settlements are made for the difference between the yield on the assets supporting the reserves reinsured and the net change in the reserves reinsured.
- Effective January 1, 1996, the company assumes from Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company, a direct wholly owned subsidiary, 100% of its direct group A&H risks. Outstanding reserves held by WPHIC at January 1, 1996, were transferred to the company pursuant to this agreement.

On a prospective basis, ELIC has been positioned to grow with capitated community health plan arrangements in selected secondary markets, particularly in Wisconsin and central California. The company will provide administrative services to health maintenance organizations. Management will continue to seek growth in its ancillary products, consisting of long-term disability and group life, which have been profitable. Achieving growth in these ancillary lines will require emphasis to be placed upon administrative service arrangements for self-insured employers.

The following tables form a comparative summary of gross and net premiums written, together with administrative service program results, in 1992 and 1996, respectively:

Business is written through a salesforce consisting of 313 agents, which includes both salaried WSC account representatives and independent agents paid on commission.

Account representatives are employes of the company. Each receives a salary, with the opportunity to earn a bonus, if his remuneration credits, tallied much the same as commissions, exceed his salary and chargeable business expenses. If remuneration credits do not exceed salary and chargeable expenses, there is no chargeback, nor is the deficiency carried into the following year's compensation formula.

Account representatives have access to the same employe benefit plans offered to nonmarketing employes. In addition, account representatives are eligible to participate in "The Capital Plan," a long-term deferred compensation program specifically for marketing employes. Under this plan, a percentage of the revenue produced by the account representative above a set threshold of annual production is set aside on his behalf, and earns investment income. After 10 full years of service, if the representative does not violate his marketing agreement and is not discharged for embezzlement, misappropriation of funds, fraud, or other valid cause, the deferred compensation and earnings thereon are vested with the representative.

Independent agents are compensated according to the following commission schedule. Most rates are on a sliding scale that declines with the volume of premium or service revenue related to a specific policy:

III. MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL

Control by Succession of Parent Corporations

Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company holds ultimate control of the company's board and of its executive direction. As more thoroughly described both previously and in Section IV, "Affiliated Companies," of this report, all issued and outstanding common shares of the company are indirectly, but wholly, owned by Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company. While a director of the company is generally elected for a term of one year, the articles of incorporation provide that a director may be removed from office by an affirmative vote of the majority of shares entitled to vote taken at any annual or special meeting of the sole shareholder.

In addition to control of its board of directors, ultimate executive direction of the company is held by the chief executive officer of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company. Article V, Section 4, of the bylaws, states that "The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer - Nationwide Insurance Enterprise shall be the chief executive officer and shall exercise general administrative leadership and direction of the Corporation in conformity with the actions and controls established and maintained by the Board of Directors."

Board of Directors

The board of directors consists of five members. Directors are elected annually to serve one-year terms. As executive employes of the holding company system, the directors receive no compensation specific to their service on the board. Members of the company's board of directors are typically members of other boards of directors in the holding company system. Officers are elected at the board's annual organizational meeting, and as positions are created or fall vacant.

At the examination date, the board of directors consisted of the following persons:

Name and Residence	Principal Occupation	Expiry
Galen R. Barnes Columbus, Ohio	Vice Chairman of the Board Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company	1998
Dwight E. Davis Mosinee, Wisconsin	President and Chief Operating Officer EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company	1998
Alfred P. Moore Wausau, Wisconsin	Senior Vice President, Group Operations EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company	1998
D. Richard McFerson Delaware, Ohio	Chairman and Chief Executive Officer - Nationwide Insurance Enterprise, Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company	1998
Douglas C. Robinette Wausau, Wisconsin	Executive Vice President, Customer Services EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company	1998

Committees of the Board

Article IV of the company's bylaws permit the formation of committees by the board of directors. There are currently no board committees. However, on May 26, 1995, the board recognized and authorized the joint investment committee of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company "to review and approve investments, to issue executive resolutions, and to otherwise act on behalf of the Corporation in investment decisions, consistent with applicable laws and regulations and existing contractual and other obligations of the Corporation."

This investment committee is a joint committee resolving upon matters affecting Employers, Wausau Business Insurance Company, Wausau Underwriters Insurance Company, Employers Life Insurance Company of Wausau, and Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company. The primary function of this committee is to recommend to the full board a general investment policy for the company. It also reviews, monitors, and approves the investment transactions authorized by management between its meetings. The investment committee meets more frequently than most of the other joint board committees, usually seven or eight times per year. Most of the deliberations and discussions of the committee members occur out of session. During its meetings, the committee enters documents and plans, and the results of its deliberations upon those documents and plans into the minutes. Membership of the investment committee at the examination date was as follows: D. Richard McFerson (Chairperson), Charles L. Fuellgraf, Jr., Henry S. Holloway, David O. Miller, James F. Patterson, and Arden L. Shisler.

It is the practice of the board to review and ratify the decisions of this joint investment committee.

Other Joint Committees

Due to significant overlap in the membership of the boards of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and its insurance company subsidiaries and affiliates and the boards of Employers and its insurance subsidiaries and affiliates, committee meetings are often conducted on a joint basis on behalf of the entire Nationwide Insurance Enterprise. The following joint committees of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company deliberate and resolve upon matters affecting the company, though they have not been formally recognized by ELIC's board.

Audit Committee

The joint audit committee meets from time-to-time as necessary, typically four or five times per year. It is the function of this committee to maintain direct lines of communication between the board of directors and both the company's independent public accounting firm, and the internal audit department. The committee makes recommendations to the full board on the appointment of public accountants; reviews the financial statements of the company, its subsidiaries, and affiliates; inquires into the effectiveness of the company's internal auditing methods and procedures; and makes reports concerning its activities to the full board.

Membership of the audit committee at the examination date was as follows: James F. Patterson (Chairman), Lewis J. Alphin, Willard J. Engel, C. Ray Noecker, San W. Orr, Jr., and Robert L. Stewart.

Salary and Compensation Committee

The salary and compensation committee meets from time-to-time as its responsibilities may require; during the examination period, it has usually met six or seven times per year. It is the function of this committee to research and issue recommendations to the board as a whole concerning director and senior executive compensation. Oversight is also extended to matters affecting retirement programs and employe benefit plans, succession plans, and personnel matters relating to high-level executives. Membership of the salary and compensation committee at the examination date was as follows: David O. Miller (Chairman), Fred C. Finney, Charles L. Fuellgraf, Jr., Willard J. Engel, Henry S. Holloway, D. Richard McFerson, and Nancy C. Thomas.

IV. AFFILIATED COMPANIES

Employers Life Insurance Company of Wausau is a member of the Nationwide Insurance Enterprise, a multinational holding company system under the dual control of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company (hereinafter also "NMIC") and Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company (hereinafter also "NMFIC"). A chart of the companies within the holding company system is presented later in this section of the examination report.

Present Succession of Control

ELIC is a second-tier affiliate of NMIC. Each entity in the immediate succession of control is described below, beginning with the ultimate parent and progressing to the next immediate tier of control.

Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company

Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company was incorporated under the laws of the state of Ohio on December 16, 1925, and commenced business on April 14, 1926. It was organized under the auspices of, and endorsed by, the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation to provide automobile insurance to those eligible for membership in the federation. Operations were conducted under the name of Farm Bureau Mutual Automobile Insurance Company until September 1, 1955, when the present name was adopted. It retains strong ties to its agribusiness origins through a distinctive process of nominating its independent (nonemploye) directors. Eleven of the 14 members of the board are nominated from certain sponsorship organizations, specifically, the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, Maryland Farm Bureau, Ruralite Services, Farmland Industries, Pennsylvania Farmers' Association, and Southern States Cooperative. After a nominee of a sponsorship organization is elected to the board by a majority vote of the policyholders, the newly elected director resigns from any office held with the sponsorship organization.

As of December 31, 1996, NMIC, and its sister company, NMFIC, exercised direct or indirect ownership or control of 111 legal entities, including 98 stock corporations, 3 mutual insurance companies, 4 common law trusts, 2 not-for-profit corporations, 2 limited partnerships, and 2 limited liability companies. The primary focus of the Nationwide holding company system is the underwriting and distribution of insurance products and services, with 23 property and casualty insurers, 6 life and health insurers, 5 health maintenance organizations, 35 insurance brokerages and agencies, and 10 providers of ancillary insurance-related services. The other 34 entities conduct a diversified range of activities, including mutual fund investment services, real estate investment and management, radio and television broadcasting, data processing, and administration of deferred compensation programs for state and municipal civil service employees throughout the country. The holding company system is a significant provider of variable annuity contracts to members of the National Educational Association.

NMIC's current business emphasis remains with automobile coverages, with distribution primarily by independent agents who confine their representation exclusively to companies in the Nationwide Insurance Enterprise. The company is licensed in the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and all states except New Jersey. Approximately 51% of the company's direct premium is written in Pennsylvania, New York, North Carolina, and Ohio. Headquarters are maintained in Columbus, Ohio. ELIC took on WPHIC's former role as a reinsurer of affiliated life and accident and health insurance risks, and as the administrator of accident and health insurance plans for Employers. On a prospective basis, WPHIC is expected to concentrate its activities on providing commercial health insurance products issued in conjunction with other products sold by other companies in its holding company system.

In addition to ongoing common management and control by these upstream affiliates, the company's relationship to its affiliates is affected by various written agreements. Reinsurance agreements are described in the reinsurance section of this report. A brief summary of the other agreements follows:

Effective January 1, 1991, the company entered into a service agreement whereby WSC

The exceptional results for Ratio No. 12, "Change in Reserving Ratio," in 1994 and 1995 were due to reinsurance cessions in excess of renewal premiums on ordinary life insurance.

The company experienced five exceptional results in 1996: Ratio No. 2, "Net Gain to Total Income," Ratio No. 8, "Surplus Relief," Ratio No. 9, "Change in Premium," Ratio No. 10, "Change in Product Mix," and Ratio No. 12, "Change in Reserving Ratio." Most of these unusual values were attributable to the significant revision in the company's plan of operation effective January 1, 1996, whereby ELIC took on WPHIC's former role as a reinsurer of affiliated life and accident and health risks. The result for Ratio No. 2, "Net Gain to Total Income," reflects the company's net loss in income for 1996.

The foregoing schedules make apparent the significant change in the company's operations that began effective January 1, 1996. ELIC took on WPHIC's former role as a reinsurer of affiliated life and accident and health insurance risks, and as the administrator of accident and health insurance plans for self-insured plans for EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company.

The decline in surplus in 1996 primarily was due to the $16,048,372 net loss. In its 1996 management discussion and analysis, the company attributes its 1996 net loss to adverse results in group accident and health. Management asserts that these results reflect general industry trends, whereby premium prices have not kept pace with rising health care costs as industry members compete for market share. The loss for health operations is also held to reflect the rapid growth in enrollment, the start-up costs incurred in introducing new products, and investment in building the infrastructure necessary to achieve the company's long-term goals in this product line.

Reconciliation of Policyholders' Surplus

The examination resulted in no adjustments to the $126,509,480 in policyholders' surplus reported by the company as of December 31, 1996. Two reclassifications were disclosed as follows:

Summary of Current Examination Results

Management and Control

The compliance examination as of December 31, 1992, noted that a joint investment committee comprising members of the boards of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company, though not elected or otherwise recognized by ELIC's board, had issued signed executive resolutions on behalf of ELIC, identifying its own members as the investment committee of ELIC. Accordingly, it was recommended that the board of directors formally recognize this joint investment committee if the board was to continue to allow the committee to act on its behalf. On May 26, 1995, the board authorized the joint investment committee of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company "to review and approve investments, to issue executive resolutions, and to otherwise act on behalf of the Corporation in investment decisions, consistent with applicable laws and regulations and existing contractual and other obligations of the Corporation".

Increasing integration of executive management within the Nationwide Insurance Enterprise has resulted in the use of more joint committees. The joint audit committee and joint salary and compensation committee for the Nationwide Insurance Enterprise deliberate and act upon matters which directly concern ELIC. It is recommended that the board of directors formally recognize any joint committee that it permits to act on its behalf. The board is reminded that the composition of any joint committee must be consistent with s. 611.56 (1), Wis. Stat., unless its role is strictly advisory.

Corporate Records

The examination reports as of December 31, 1989, and as of December 31, 1992, noted that certain aspects of the company's operations were conducted with assistance from Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company, but that no service agreement existed which clearly and accurately disclosed the specific types of assistance NMIC is providing, and how ELIC is to reimburse or compensate NMIC for its services. Accordingly, both examination reports recommended that the company adopt a service agreement for this purpose.

Section 611.61 (1) (b), Wis. Stat., provides that an insurer may enter into no transaction with an affiliate unless the records of these transactions are kept in a manner that clearly and accurately discloses the nature and details of the transaction. Written service agreements are essential to effectuate compliance with this statute because they provide information critical to an understanding of the purpose and methodology of the accounting transactions reflected in the general ledger and supporting records. This examination indicated that the company has still not entered into a service agreement in compliance with the recommendation of the two prior examination reports. It is again recommended that the company adopt a service agreement with Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company which discloses the services NMIC regularly provides to the company, together with the methods and timing of reimbursement or compensation for these services, pursuant to s. 611.61(1)(b), Wis. Stat.

The company was incorporated by reference under the terms of an investment advisory agreement between Employers and Nationwide Advisory Services, Inc. (then known as "Nationwide Financial Services, Inc."), effective January 1, 1986. Pursuant to this agreement, Nationwide Advisory Services, Inc., agrees to supply investment management services to Employers and its subsidiaries and affiliates including, but not limited to, development of investment programs, advice, research, statistical data collection, provision of informational reports, and mortgage loan administration. ELIC's minutes indicate that the board of directors reviews and ratifies the investment activities conducted on behalf of the company on a regular basis.

Within the investment advisory agreement between Employers and Nationwide

Advisory Services, Inc., ELIC and Employers' other downstream subsidiaries were not referenced by name, but simply as subsidiaries of Employers. Accordingly, when ELIC and its subsidiary, Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company, were sold to Nationwide Life Insurance Company effective January 1, 1996, the agreement ceased to apply to these companies. The ongoing servicing relationship between Nationwide Advisory Services, Inc., and ELIC should be evidenced by a written contract. It is recommended that the company adopt a service agreement with Nationwide Advisory Services, Inc., which discloses the services National Advisory Services, Inc., regularly provides to the company, together with the methods and timing of reimbursement or compensation for these services, pursuant to s. 611.61 (1) (b), Wis. Stat.

Real Estate

It is not the usual practice of the company to make direct investments in real estate. All real estate held by the company as of December 31, 1996, consists of indivisible interests held jointly with other insurers in nine properties secured through foreclosure, or acceptance of deed in lieu of foreclosure. Of the nine properties, Nationwide Life Insurance Company coordinates the work of the nonaffiliated property managers for eight, while West Coast Life Insurance Company coordinates the work of a nonaffiliated property manager for one. ELIC's personnel maintain their real estate records from various reports sent to them by either Nationwide Life Insurance Company or West Coast Life Insurance Company.

Schedule A of the 1996 annual statement was not prepared according to the requirements of its format and contained numerous inaccuracies. The following columns were not completed, despite their applicability to the properties included on the schedule: column 4 (Name of Vendor), column 14 (Taxes, Repairs, and Expenses Incurred), column 16 (Amount of Mortgage at the Time of Acquisition as Real Estate), and column 17 (Amount of Taxes, Foreclosure Costs & Other Expenses Capitalized in the Book Value of Real Estate). Figures for column 8 (Market Value Less Encumbrances) should have been identical to the figures in column 9 (Statement Value), but were instead reported as identical to those in column 7 (Book Value Less Encumbrances). Figures in column 13 (Gross Income Earned Less Interest Incurred on Encumbrances) were identical to column 15 (Net Income), and reflected only cash forwarded by property managers net of actual and anticipated expenses. Figures for certain of the properties reflected only the period through November 30, 1996. Information through December 31, 1996, was available to Nationwide Life Insurance Company and was used in preparation of its own Schedule A, but was not forwarded to ELIC personnel on a timely basis.

Differences between the figures reported on Schedule A and those resulting from this examination are summarized as follows:

Formal adjustment of the balance sheet and income statement to correct the foregoing differences was waived for purposes of this examination. However, the foregoing summary indicates the extent of problems with respect to the completion of Schedule A. It is recommended that Schedule A of future statutory annual statements be prepared accurately and according to its format.

Cash

This balance sheet item is intended to represent money, negotiable money orders, bank drafts and checks, and balances on deposit with banks after any outstanding items have been deducted. The company reported a balance for this line item of $141,684 as of December 31, 1996, while the examination resulted in a balance of $(3,792,098).

The company inappropriately classified certain bank account balances totaling $(3,933,782) as miscellaneous liabilities for annual statement reporting purposes. These reclassifications were made as a matter of company practice. The $(3,933,782) balance consisted of $(82,052) in a zero-balance checking account with the National Bank of Detroit, N.A. and $(3,851,730) in a zero-balance checking account with M&I First American Bank. There is no effect on stated surplus as a result of this practice. Nonetheless, the practice has the effect of overstating the balance of cash and is contrary to statutory accounting principles. It is recommended that the company report checks outstanding net of its cash balances in accordance with the NAIC's Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual For Life and Accident and Health Insurance Companies, pursuant to s. Ins 50.20 (1) (b), Wis. Adm. Code.

The company's cash is maintained in eight accounts at seven depositories. The name and location of two cash depositories were not accurately reported in Schedule E of the 1996 annual statement. An account with Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco, California, was reported as being with First Interstate Bank in Chicago, Illinois, and another account with the National Bank of Detroit, N.A. in Detroit, Michigan, was reported as being with J.P. Morgan in Newark, New Jersey. Misidentification of depositories was also noted in the statement of separate accounts. An account with the Bank of New York in New York City was reported as being with Firstar Bank in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. It is recommended that the company accurately identify the name and location of its cash depositories in Schedule E in accordance with the NAIC's Annual Statement Instructions—Life and Health, pursuant to s. Ins 50.20 (1) (b), Wis. Adm. Code. This treatment should also be applied to short-term investments reported in future filings of the statement of separate accounts.

Short-term Investments

The company has investment accounts with California Cash Management Company and Nationwide Cash Management Company, both of which are affiliated management companies. These affiliates manage separate portfolios, each consisting of short-duration debt obligations and cash equivalents, for various participating members of the Nationwide Insurance Enterprise.

The principal balances of funds invested with these companies are properly stated and disclosed in the 1996 annual statement. Income derived from these investments is included in Exhibit 2, "Net Investment Income," the summary of operations, and Schedule DA, Part 2, lines 11 and 12, of the annual statement. However, throughout the period under examination, the gross amount of interest received has not been reported in Schedule DA, Part 1, of the annual statement.

The company's data processing system for short-term investments is structured much along the same lines as the annual statement reporting format for bonds. The system allocates income to the various parts of Schedule DA that would exist if its format were like that of Schedule D. While the system may well hold some advantages for the monitoring of transactions on a day-to-day basis, it requires additional effort to convert information to the format of the statutory financial statements. The company's system only includes gross interest received for these investment accounts on Schedule DA, Part 1, with respect to "purchase lots" that are still owned by the company at year-end.

The format of the annual statement provides a reasonable expectation that the gross amount of interest received on an investment fund, as reported on Schedule DA, Part 1, is the gross amount received for the year. Listing the figures for the gross amount received on specific investment accounts on Schedule DA, Part 1, may be analytically useful to people who have occasion to review the annual statement. It is recommended that the company report the gross amount of interest received on short-term investments in accordance with the format of the convention annual statement. This treatment should also be applied to short-term investments reported in future filings of the statement of separate accounts.

This situation with respect to Schedule DA was noted during the last examination, and a recommendation was made to correct it. During 1995, the company and its affiliates began reporting the short-term investment income on a gross basis on Schedule DA, Part 2. Based on discussions with investment accounting staff, the examiner-in-charge was convinced that company personnel acted to comply with the prior recommendation, as they understood it. Accordingly, this examination has declined to report this as a repeated recommendation.

Miscellaneous Liabilities

The company reported a balance for this line item of $4,416,738 as of December 31, 1996, while the examination resulted in a balance of $482,956. The difference is the result of a reclassification of $3,933,782 in outstanding checks drawn against two zero-balance checking accounts to cash.

This reclassification is reflected in the section of this report captioned,
"Reconciliation of Policyholders' Surplus." The circumstances of this reclassification are described in the section of this report captioned "Cash."

Separate Accounts - Cash

This balance sheet line item on the 1996 statement of separate accounts is intended to represent money, negotiable money orders, bank drafts and checks, and balances on deposit with banks after any outstanding items have been deducted. The company reported a balance for this line item of $37,332 as of December 31, 1996, while the examination noted that the balance should have been $7,455. This reclassification is reflected in the section of this report captioned, "Reconciliation of Policyholders' Surplus."

The balance of $37,332 reported by the company consisted of $7,455 in a bank account and $29,877 in the Benchmark Diversified Assets Portfolio, a money market mutual fund sponsored by The Northern Trust Company in Chicago, Illinois.

According to the NAIC's Annual Statement Instructions – Life and Health, money market mutual funds as defined by Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Securities

Valuation Office Sections 4(A)(i) and 4(A)(ii) are to be reported as short-term investments on Schedule DA. Money market funds are not to be reported on Schedule E. It is recommended that the company classify money market mutual funds in accordance with the NAIC's Annual Statement Instructions – Life and Health, pursuant to s. Ins 50.20 (1) (b), Wis. Adm. Code.

Separate Accounts – Short-term Investments

The company reported a balance for this line item of $9,076,488 as of December 31, 1996, while the examination resulted in a balance of $9,106,365. The difference is the result of a reclassification of $29,877 in the Benchmark Diversified Assets Portfolio from cash.

This reclassification is reflected in the section of this report captioned,
"Reconciliation of Policyholders' Surplus". The circumstances of this reclassification are described in the section of this report captioned "Separate Accounts – Cash."

The entire $9,076,488 reported by the company consisted of an investment account with the Nationwide Cash Management Company. This affiliate manages a portfolio consisting of short-duration debt obligations and cash equivalents, for various participating members of the Nationwide Insurance Enterprise. Comment concerning the reporting of short-term investment income in the statement of separate accounts is included in the section of this report captioned, "Short-term Investments".

VIII. CONCLUSION

Policyholders' surplus has increased from $105,362,055 as of year-end 1992, to $126,509,480 as of year-end 1996. This represents an increase of 20.1% during the period under examination.

The following schedule summarizes the cumulative increases and decreases to surplus from December 31, 1992, when policyholders' surplus was last verified by examination, to December 31, 1996:

Policyholders' surplus, December 31, 1992	$105,362,055
Change in net unrealized capital gains Net income Change in asset valuation reserve Prior period adjustment Change in nonadmitted assets and related items	21,905,372 3,833,609 (3,803,345) (778,239) (9,972)
Policyholders' surplus, December 31, 1996	$126,509,480

Areas of improvement recommended by this examination included, but were not limited to, documenting agreements with affiliates in writing, real estate accounting, the identification of cash depositories, and reporting investment income.

While the company is a separate legal entity, it has no employes of its own. All of the company's operations are conducted by employes of Wausau Service Corporation and Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company. Therefore, the practices and procedures of these entities are important to the operating results of the company.

There was a significant revision in the company's plan of operation effective January 1, 1996. This revision was most prominently reflected in certain new reinsurance arrangements:

• Effective January 1, 1996, the company assumes all of the group A&H insurance risks written by its affiliate, EMPLOYERS INSURANCE OF WAUSAU A Mutual Company. Pursuant to the reinsurance agreement, Employers is entitled to withhold funds in proportion to the outstanding policy and claim reserve levels. The reinsurance agreement provides for the payment of interest to the company on funds withheld. By this reinsurance agreement, the company replaced its subsidiary, Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company, as Employers' group A&H reinsurer.

- Effective January 1, 1996, the company provides to Employers certain services for uninsured accident and health plans, which were previously performed by Employers itself. The company essentially performs in the capacity of a subcontractor. The service fee income is reflected as service contract fees in the statement of operations, while the allocated expense is included in general insurance expenses. For some years prior to January 1, 1996, Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company acted in this subcontracting capacity.
- Effective January 1, 1996, the company entered into a modified coinsurance agreement with Nationwide Life Insurance Company, an affiliate, whereby accident and health and group life insurance written or assumed by Nationwide Life is ceded to the company. Under modified coinsurance agreements, the ceding company retains the reserves and related invested assets. In accordance with the agreement, quarterly settlements are made for the difference between the yield on the assets supporting the reserves reinsured and the net change in the reserves reinsured.
- Effective January 1, 1996, the company assumes from Wausau Preferred Health Insurance Company, a direct wholly owned subsidiary, 100% of its direct group A&H risks. Outstanding reserves held by WPHIC at January 1, 1996, were transferred to the company pursuant to this agreement.

On a prospective basis, ELIC has been positioned to grow with capitated community health plan arrangements in selected secondary markets, particularly in Wisconsin and central California. The company will provide administrative services to health maintenance organizations. Management will continue to seek growth in its ancillary products, consisting of long-term disability and group life, which have been profitable. Achieving growth in these ancillary lines will require emphasis to be placed upon administrative service arrangements for self-insured employers.
